LEWIS & Co.

If a man's dinner is right, and he rises from the table conscious that his wife has used the same judgment as to price that she did in the selection of the articles disposed of there can be no indigestion to follow. Our goods are of the kind which bring health, happiness and a fat purse.

Table delicacies are a fad with us—they are bought because we know the average Honoluluite is fond of good things for the stomach. Our prices are below the average and special inducements are offered to cash purchasers. Our latest importations include the best goods obtainable in the English markets.

Copeland's English Peas; Cod's Roe, Mackerel in Mustard Sauce and Cambridge Sausages in tins are so well put up that it would be difficult to detect the difference between them and the same articles direct from the market.

"Teyssonneau" is a long name to put before Pate but the combination makes the best tid bit ever placed before a gourmet. These are goods that anyone may eat without fear of indigestion following. They are put up in the best factories in Europe and come to us in elegant condition.

JAPAN IN HAWAII.

The United States Will Tolerate No Fooling Here.

The San Francisco Examiner says: "While the attention of the world has been concentrated on the Cretan and Cuban complications events have been moving rapidly in the Pacific. It looks now as if the time may have come to settle definitely the question whether America or Japan is to control Hawaii. Fortunately the crisis has not found the management of our foreign policy in the hands of Cleveland, and weak as Mr. McKinley seems to be in the Mediterranean, he is hardly likely to tolerate any interference with our traditional supremacy in the islands that we have civilized and commercially annexed. "The Hawaiian Government, in attempting to restrict the Japanese immigration that is rapidly giving the country an entirely new population, has undertaken to apply some of the same rules the United States applies to the Chinese. It permits the customs officers to decide upon the qualifications of applicants for landing, and does not recognize any vested right of persons who have not yet set foot on Hawaiian soil to use the courts to cripple the national policy. It also requires vessels that have brought passengers not entitled to land to carry them back.

"The Japanese are so numerous and aggressive in Hawaii that they are not inclined to submit quietly to the laws. They have appealed to their Government for protection, and it is understood that a Japanese naval force is on its way to the islands to back up the demands of the Mikado's representative.

"Of course this is something that the United States cannot permit to proceed to extremities. We like the Japanese, in their own country; we sympathize heartily with them when they try to extend their power over Korea, Formosa and other regions within their natural sphere of influence, and we should even be willing for them to crowd Spain out of the Philippines; but when they come two-thirds of the way across the Pacific and undertake to supersede us in a country that has been substantially an American protectorate for more than half a century, we draw the line. The dispatch of the Philadelphia to Honolulu is the natural and proper answer to such an enterprise.

PRESIDENT DIAZ DECORATED. BERLIN—The Reichsar officially announces that President Diaz, of Mexico, has been decorated with the Order of the "Rainier." President Diaz issued an edict to the effect that no beer except the sparkling "Rainier" be served in public places, or on state occasions. On tap or in bottles at the Criterion.

Seattle Book.

By the steamer Miowera, the Criterion Saloon received a large consignment of the celebrated book beer, brewed by the Seattle Brewing and Malting Co. This is the first book to make its appearance, and is a sure indication of better days.

King Bros. have just filled an order for 200 colored Hawaiian photos for a party in America.

Nicely furnished rooms at the Popular House, 154 Fort street, from $1.00 per week up.

New suitings and pants patterns are arriving by every mail steamer for L. B. Kerr. He sells a single yard at wholesale prices.

Kroeger Pianos, sweetest in tone, Jas. W. Bergstrom, sole agent, cash or installments. Warehouses at G. West's, Masonic Temple. Office at Thrum's Book Store. Tuning and repairing. Telephone 347.

Printed ducks are just as good, if not better than anything else for boys' shirt waists. They wash and wear well, two very important considerations. Kerr has them in a large variety of patterns at eight yards for one dollar.

A Highland drover sold a horse to an Englishman. A few days after the buyer returned to him. "You said that horse had no faults," he complained. "Well, no mair had he." "He's nearly blind," said the indignant Englishman. "Mon, that's no' his fault—it's his misfortune."
